“ Where do I start? I have so many wonderful memories of my friend Teresa? I met her when she was in high school. She lived across the street from where I lived. I was part of her wedding party when she married her 1st husband. We continue to be friends for many many wonderful years. I have so many Beautiful memories of my children and her children together. Although I will miss her dearly I am Glad she is not suffering anymore. Until we meet again my sweet friend..

What a pretty lady! God Bless your family Alfred. We are so sorry you all are going through this. Our thoughts have been with you all and even though Dave & I didn't know Teresa's children, they are in our prayers for comfort, peace, & healing. We send love to all of you. I just watched the funeral live & it was beautiful. I really loved the Indian blessing. I have a lot of different Indian in my blood but never knew any of the languages. It sounds so beautiful. May Teresa rest in peace and may perpetual lite shine upon her. Dave & Margie Nabor
