

Thalia Recendez-Vigil

February 27, 2009 - February 2, 2024

Thalia Vigil (Thali), peacefully passed in her home surrounded by the love of her family at the age of 14 on February 2, 2024. She is survived by her loving mother, Azucena Vigil; sister, Mariah Vigil; and grandmother, Barbra Moreno. She was the niece to Ernie (Esther) Maes, Dolores (Donovan) Vigil, Jose Maes, Lionel Trujillo and Linda and Teressa Valenzuela. Thalia was extremely close to her oldest cousins; Aubrey and Hailey Maes, and deeply loved her younger cousins and Recendez family including her Grandparents; Consuelo and Rafael Recendez; her aunt, Lili; and her uncles; Ritchie and Rafa Recendez. Thalia was the light of her family and despite being sick and not having her sight she always remained the happiest, sweetest person in the room. Anyone who had the privilege of meeting her sweet soul, immediately fell deeply in love with her. When people talk about her the same statement always seems to surface, “to know her was to love her.” She loved to make people laugh with her silly jokes and no matter how much she was going through she always put other people’s joy above her own. She loved to jam out to music with her mom and sister, play at the splash park with her sister and cousins, play in ball pits, play with her cousin Gages toys, and swing on her swing. Above all else, Thalia loved to sing. She would serenade her family with her songs at any time, every song you wanted to listen to she would sing you, she was a “human jukebox.” Thalia was truly the sweetest person in the world, with a smile so beautiful and a laugh so contagious, with the tightest hugs, and the kindest heart. Despite her short life, and all the challenges she had to face and overcome, Thalia loved life and loved to make others love life as well.

“ I had the extreme privilege of working with Thalia for five years. I was with her from kindergarten till fourth grade when the pandemic started. She was truly a bright light in this world. She made me smile every day and we had so many fun times singing together. I especially enjoyed the times we would sing nursery rhymes together while I pushed her on the swing. I will always remember her at the school talent show. We all practiced to make it perfect and it truly was. When she came out and sang I think most of us were quietly crying. It was a truly touching moment. Thalia will always be in my heart 💜 I am so grateful to have had the chance to get to know her. I will miss you so much but I know you are singing with the angels. All my love , Miss Jessi Wright
