“ Aunt Theresa I will forever love you! You taught me a lot while I came and spent the summers with you. I enjoyed our occasional conversation about any and everything. I will miss the calls but I’m happy that you are now in a better place until we meet again!

Theresa was my buddy. We talked on the phone every now and then and she always called me on my birthday. She was an important part of our lives, and we will feel her loss deeply, she will live on in our memories.

What we have once enjoyed we can never lose. All that we loved deeply becomes part of us.(Helen Keller)
