“ Veronica...

Words cannot explain the amount of gratitude I owe you! You were a Great Mentor and An Amazing Friend to me... When I needed someone to talk to you always had a open ear and a big comforting heart! Things are most certainly different without you. I'm beyond grateful for the guidance and support you ALWAYS had for me. I feel like you and I had that bond through our Organization OCD quirks. 😊 But truly I love and miss you dearly Veronica. Keep an Eye over your family in this difficult time. && To Veronicas Family I'm So Sorry For Your Loss. She made a huge impact in my life and I will forever be grateful. ❤️❤️ Keep your heads up ❤️

“Veronica was my mother in law but she was more like a mom to me and treated me like a daughter.

I knew her for five years but in that time frame there were so many wonderful memories made.

I remember all of the family game nights when we'd sit down at the table in the living room and play games like skip-bo, Yahtzee, family feud, and more. She was good at those games and she was competitive but in a good way. She was very fun loving.

I remember all the Christmases we shared and it was always fun getting to decorate the tree with her, Blake, and Dale. We also built and decorated gingerbread houses a couple Christmases in a row and asked our friends on Facebook to vote for which one they thought was the best. Needless to say that hers and Dale's won.

She taught me how to cook, one of which was homemade pizzas. And when I caught the grill on fire she didn't panic, she just helped me put it out and she said it was no big deal.

I loved when she would dance with me in the living room some times. We stayed up til midnight on New Year's of 2020 when the guys had passed out and had watched that movie about the dog who reincarnates into other dogs to stay with his human and we bawled at the end of it.

She always had such a big heart and was so empathetic. She was always there for her family when they needed her.

She was so organized and kept a clean, beautiful home for her family. She could have been an interior designer if she'd wanted to. She made adulting look easy. Everything was always clean and everything in her home always had a place.

She was so intelligent and knew how to budget and manage money. She could have taught people classes on building their credit. She always gave the best advice and gave the warmest hugs.

When we had a problem she was always there offering her love and support and would come up with a plan to fix it.

She helped me through a difficult time when I had a miscarriage back in March of this year. She took me to the hospital and stayed by my side the entire time and just held me as I cried.

She was so creative and loved painting. Her favorite color was blue and she incorporated it into almost every aspect in her home. She even painted the pillows on the sofa with some blue to give them a pop of color, her own special touch.

Her and I had a lot of fun making all of the wedding decorations for mine and Blake's wedding. We made them out of things we bought from Dollar Tree, Family Dollar, Dollar General, and Hobby Lobby. She was coming up with ideas when I was drawing blanks. She knew how to make something beautiful on a budget and she made our special day even that more special.

She always wanted to be a noni (not grandma lol) and she would have been wonderful. She loved babies and kept asking Blake and I when we were going to give her a grand baby.

She was a beautiful woman, inside and out. I loved her so much and I miss her so much. Life is not the same without her.
