“ I would like to share some special memories for a nephew whom had some challenges in his life. But through his trials he still had such a big heart, respect , and he loved his parents very much, also he loved his sister, and his kids. I have seen Victor through out his life as a child, and growing into a man. All I can say his life was taken from his family too soon. I will always love my nephew and he will truly be missed. May my sister and her husband , also his only sister, kids be strong through this time. May god be with them in this time. Sending my condolences ! Love aunty Sandy
