He was an early member of the Pueblo Bikers United and associated for 30 years, announcing the Toy Bowl for 27+ years. He enjoyed going to the Valley and working the 1990, 2000 and 2010 Census. He taught his kids to drive cars, ride motorcycles and shoot guns. He loved people, was a friend to everyone and had nicknames for most. He loved the open road, traveling, cooking, watching cooking shows, playing jokes, telling stories, playing racquetball, had a great sense of humor and was very ornery, but his favorite job of all was being a bartender.
