“ I moved to Colorado as a junior in high school from Wisconsin. I remember the day I was sitting alone in the lunch room and Violet came and sat next to me. We were best of friends ever since. We got in a bit of trouble together but had lots of fun! I flipped my parents station wagon on its side taking her home to dog patch one night!! It was hilarious. I could t wait to meet her baby Shawn! She impostors me as a single young mom and I adored her for her courage and dedication to her little boy! She was a funny girl and had such a great laugh!
I love you Violet! Thank you for making the move and sitting next to me at Pueblo East cafeteria! God bless you. Kim Weber-Lane

ME

“ My deepest condolences to Violet’s husband Shawn, her two loving children, her beautiful granddaughters, and all of her family and friends.

Violet and I go all the way back to our teenage years. She was the kind of friend everyone hopes for—loving, kind, and always sprinkled with just the right amount of sarcasm. She was so funny; we would laugh until our stomachs hurt about anything and everything. I can still see her combing her hair over her face to play “Cousin It” from The Addams Family, or scrunching up her face and doing that unforgettable wicked-witch laugh.

She was always a joy to be around. Even when she fell ill, her sense of humor stayed just as bright and strong. Whenever we met for lunch, she would talk about her family—how deeply she loved each of you and how much she would miss everyone. Somehow, even then, she would end up consoling me as we cried and reminisced together.

I visit your place of rest, Violet, and sit in the quiet, remembering all the beautiful, silly, joyful moments we shared. I love you, my dear friend. I will miss you until we meet again.

Your friendship has always been a blessing, and I will love you forever.

*With all my heart,
Melissa*

“ I am so sorry to hear this. She was one of my best friends in Jr. high and she kept me protected. Haven't seen her since I left Pueblo but reconnected through FB. She was so proud of her kids and grand kids. My sympathies to the family.

“ I am blessed to have been able know Violet for many years. She was always so loving and caring to my son Andrew and myself. Over the past year we had been in contact a lot more. She was an inspiration to me and helped me go through my journey even though she was battling her own. I will always be grateful for her spirit and love. Fly with the Angels Violet. 🙏🙏
