

Wayne Avery Smith

June 6, 1943 - September 1, 2018

Wayne Avery Smith, 75, of Pueblo, Colorado went to be with his Savior on September 1, 2018. Wayne was a minister in Pueblo since the 1970's and has touched many lives through the years. He was preceded in death by his wife, Barbee Smith; son, Daniel Walker; parents, Myrle and Maxine Smith (Clinton); sister, Myrlene Smith; niece, Jacelynn Cordova and his beloved dogs, Speedy and Attila. Wayne is survived by his children, Michael N. (Rubie) Smith, Sam (Jeri) Walker, Laura Smith and Kyle Smith; grandchildren, Michael, Joshua (Lisa), Kayla (Lupe), Hannah, Sarah, Meghan and Dajah; nine great grandchildren; siblings, Donald (Sharon) Smith, Opal McDonald, Juanita (Gil) Dalton, Donna (Chuck) Ridpath, Jody Hanks, Ruby Clinton and Vollie Clinton; best friend, Joe Cordova; numerous nieces nephews, extended family and friends as well as his beloved dog Oscar the 'Dude'. In addition to his many interests which included cooking and traveling, He loved Star Wars, Lord of the Rings, Super Hero Movies and The Pioneer Woman on the cooking channel. He always enjoyed orange juice in the morning, a diet cherry pepsi with dinner and going to the Mill Stop, where his favorite meals were huevos rancheros and the stuffed sopapilla. He loved being surrounded by children, family and friends, but above all he loved his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Wayne will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him dearly.
