“ What can I say? I've lost an incredibly good friend. We had wonderful good times and memories for 15 years. First Melissa. Now you. It really is unbelievable and overwhelming. Bill. I hope you are at peace. I witnessed your struggles since Melissa's passing. You always made everyone comfortable around you. This is very difficult for me. I can't even imagine what your family is going through. The only reassurance is that you are reunited with the love of your life.
I hope that I will run into you guys again on the other side.
Thank you for 15 years of laughter, memories and cherished thoughts..

“ *My Dearest William,
You and me here till the end of our days.
We passed the time away working on warm summer days and kept each other warm on cold winter nights.
Now that we are aged and sit looking at the stage, we may have had some regret, But never the day we first met.
We have learned you and I over the years from the tears we may cry your tears. I hold to my heart knowing we shall never really part.*

“ They say the love between a brother and sister is an unshakeable bond that becomes stronger with time and has no expiry date. The relationship between a brother and a sister is much like Tom and Jerry: always fighting, chasing, and teasing each other, but they also can't live without each other and constantly talking to one another (everyday on your way to work). No one can EVER take away the time and special moments I had with you brother. My love, commitment, and loyalty were as strong as life would allow. We shared all of our secrets with one another and you knew, like I knew we always had each other's back. Bill, I will never get over losing you or holding you in my arms when you took your last breath, I thank god it was me holding you when you passed. Rest in peace my love, I know Melissa was there to greet you at heaven's gates. I will do my best to honor your memory and make you proud. Forever your sister, Sandra ❤️🙏
